About the Author

Gerard Falcone is a children's book author and the founder of G. Falcone Publications, dedicated to putting extraordinary books in the hands of extraordinary kids.

He is the creator of The Magical Ticket Series — enchanting adventures for children ages 4–8 following a brave, curious girl named Rose and her beloved companions: Bouncy Bunny, Flutter Butterfly, and Singing Squirrel.

With a lifelong passion for storytelling and a belief that the right story at the right moment can change a child's life forever, Gerard crafts tales that spark imagination, inspire bravery, and open doors to bigger, bolder worlds.

Interview Topics

1. Why Children's Literature Matters More Than Ever

The case for beautifully told stories in an age of screens — and why picture books remain vital for empathy, imagination, and early emotional development.

2. The Origin Story of Rose & The Magical Ticket Series

From a single sketch to a published series — how Rose came to life and what drove Gerard to build a character who is brave, curious, and wonderfully imperfect.

3. From a Sketch to a Published Series

The behind-the-scenes journey of self-publishing through G. Falcone Publications — the decisions, the challenges, the moments that made it worth it.

4. The Magic of Courage and Kindness in Children's Fiction

Why the series is built around these two values, and how Gerard weaves them into narrative without being heavy-handed.

5. Writing for Ages 4-8: Simplicity, Rhythm, and Wonder

The craft of writing for young readers — read-aloud rhythm, word choice, pacing, and language a child and parent both love.

6. The Role of Animal Companions in Children's Storytelling

Bouncy Bunny, Flutter Butterfly, and Singing Squirrel — the intentional role each companion plays in Rose's emotional journey.

7. The Mission Behind G. Falcone Publications

Putting extraordinary books in the hands of extraordinary kids — and the vision for the next five years.

8. What's Next in The Magical Ticket Series

A sneak peek at Books 2 through 5 — the Starlight Carnival, the Whispering Forest, the Crystal Carriage, and the Lost Station at the Edge of the Sky.

9. How Parents & Educators Can Use the Books

Practical ways Rose's adventures spark conversations at home and in the classroom — discussion questions, activities, and embedded values.

10. What Gerard Hopes Every Child Takes Away

The one sentence Gerard hopes every young reader carries with them long after closing the book — and why it matters to him personally.
